Re: Sorensen v. Lexar Media, Inc.
Case No. C08-00095 JW

Dear Ms. Kramer:

This letter confirms our agreement, reached telephonically, that, under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 29 and 33(b)(2), the parties hereby stipulate that the time for Lexar's response to Plaintiff's Interrogatories to Defendant Lexar Media, Inc. (Set One) Nos. 1 thru 6, dated May 22, 2008, is extended by two weeks, to July 7, 2008. If a protective order is not yet entered in this case by July 7, 2008, Lexar reserves the right to request an additional extension to ensure the confidentiality of its information.

The parties also stipulate that the time for Plaintiff's response to Lexar's First Set of Requests for Production and Lexar's First Set of Interrogatories, both dated June 16, 2008, is extended by two weeks, to July 30, 2008. In addition, Lexar agrees to amend its initial disclosures to provide the job title and, if known, current employer of all individuals identified by Lexar as having knowledge of the Accused Product.

If you do not agree that this reflects our agreement, please let me know immediately.

Sincerely,

Joseph H. Lee
